My Bestest Ever Friend

Synopsis

My Bestest Ever Friend is a fun and heartwarming poem that celebrates the special bond between a child and their animal friends.

Through playful descriptions of a dog, bunny, fish, and cat, the poem highlights the unique qualities and amusing habits that make each pet so lovable.

Filled with humour, imagination, and affection, it shows how pets bring joy, companionship, and friendship to everyday life, making them truly the "bestest ever" friends.

Friends come in all shapes and sizes it's true
And here are the things I love most about you!

Whenever I need you, you're always there,
With your glistening nose and your crazy, wild hair.
No matter the day, no matter the weather,
Just as long as we are in it together.

You sit on my lap, and dribble while I eat,
And sometimes you drop the post at my feet.
